Creditors' Rights & Bankruptcy

As a litigation attorney, I focus my practice on helping clients navigate complex, sensitive and often urgent matters. It is my job to help my clients resolve their issues outside of the courtroom, but when such matters cannot be resolved, I advocate strongly for my clients at trial.

My litigation experience is based at the trial court and appellate level, handling cases ranging from breach of contract actions to a diverse criminal defense practice, including all levels of misdemeanor and felony matters, as well as appellate and post-conviction representation. I have represented my clients in municipal, state, appellate and federal courts throughout Ohio. I have a deep familiarity with all the nuances that are involved in bench and jury trials, and know how to put my experience to work for my client's benefit.

It is my goal to ensure my clients feel heard, reassured and actively involved in the case throughout the entire matter.
