AREAS OF PRACTICE
Business

Dan is a business transaction attorney who works with middle-market companies on mergers and acquisitions, transactions, joint ventures and commercial real estate matters. He provides counsel and guidance to boards of directors as well as business advice to manufacturers, professional medical practices and emerging growth companies. He is experienced in negotiating contracts with successful outcomes.

Dan values his clients' insights and understands the need to listen to and fully understand the underlying issues before presenting a solution. He enjoys working on and helping clients understand complex matters. Dan develops meaningful relationships by being thoroughly engaged throughout the client process. He listens and delves into client problems and works collaboratively with the client, the client's team, and his fellow attorneys to fully address a client's business needs. He is passionate about law and relentlessly pursues creative solutions and new approaches to best fit the client.
