I am a corporate finance lawyer. I focus my practice on in-house work at Buckingham where I assist the firm with its financing transactions. Such transactions require issuing tax exempt securities such as general obligation bonds and industrial development bonds for which I manage. I serve as underwriter, borrower, bank counsel and bond issuer on behalf of the firm.

Additionally, I prepare financing, security, underwriting, loan, trust agreements and security disclosure documents in the firm's representation of its clients. My experience of over enables me to facilitate successful transactions and better serve our clients.
